

Deborah Person-Polk

Councilperson-At-Large

Phone: 856-757-7119

Deborah Person-Polk attended Rutgers University and earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in the fields of Business Administration and Accounting. She began her professional career in 1994 working for the City of Camden. During her tenure, she served as a Commissioner of Development & Redevelopment, Executive Director of the Empowerment Zone and Assistant Business Administrator. In 1997, Councilwoman Polk began her employment with the Camden City Board of Education where she currently serves as the Director of Federal and State Funds. In her capacity as Director, she plays an integral role in securing crucial federal and state grant funding for Camden City School District students.

Mrs. Polk has been serving the residents of the City of Camden as a member of the Camden Housing Authority's Board of Commissioners since 2005. She is currently serving her fourth consecutive year as Chairperson of the Board.

In February, 2010, Deborah was sworn in to her first term as a Councilmember-At-Large in the City of Camden.

Councilwoman Polk is a proud resident of Camden, wife, mother of three children and grandmother. She is a faithful member of Shalom Baptist Church where she serves as a Trustee and Deaconess.
