

JURY DUTY

Any employee who receives an order to serve as a juror must submit a copy of such order to his/her Department Head, whereupon notification of anticipated absence will be forwarded to the Personnel Office.

Said employee will be excused from work duty for the period of time said order so states. However, in the event required jury service is reduced or cancelled (excused), the employee shall report to work.