Riversharks to Host 2015 Job Fair
Seasonal Positions Available at Campbell's Field

CAMDEN, N.J. – The Camden Riversharks will be hosting a Job Fair on Saturday, March 14, 2015 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Campbell's Field. The Job Fair will be open to the public.

There are many seasonal positions available through the team, Legends Hospitality Management, and Cleantech for the Camden Riversharks season. These positions include: concession cashiers, merchandise cashiers, porters, cooks, suite attendants, stand managers, ticket takers, ushers, funzone attendants, and ticket sellers.

“I urge our Camden residents to attend the job fair and take full advantage of these opportunities being offered,” said City of Camden Mayor Dana L. Redd. “I also commend the Camden Riversharks for hosting the job fair and for being such a strong community partner. We are so proud of the family atmosphere they have created along our waterfront over the past 15 years in Camden”

Those attending will be asked to fill out an application. Attendees are encouraged to bring a resume.

For any questions, please contact Mike Barone at 856.583.0043 or mbarone@riversharks.com.

The Riversharks home opener is Friday, May 1st, at 7:05pm. Ticket information is available on www.riversharks.com.
