CITY OF CAMDEN POOLS AND RECREATION PROGRAM OPEN FOR SUMMER

CAMDEN, NJ – Mayor Dana L. Redd would like to remind residents that the City’s two public pools are officially open for the summer. The public pools, along with the spray pools, are safe havens where Camden’s youth and their families can go to escape from the summer heat.

“I would like to encourage our residents to participate in the many events scheduled as a part of the City’s 2016 summer recreation program,” Mayor Redd said. “The Camden Department of Human Services offers residents a variety of exciting programs aimed at promoting culture, healthy living, and social interaction. Also, both of the City’s pools and numerous spray pools are officially open! It’s not only a fun time but a great way to cool down during the summer.”

The City has two public pools, one in North Camden located next to the North Camden Community Center at 6th and Erie Streets, and the other in Centerville located at the Isabel Miller Community Center at 8th Street and Carl Miller Boulevard.

The pool located at the North Camden Community Center is open Wednesday through Sunday from 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. for children 15 and under; and from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. for ages 16 and over. It is closed on Monday and Tuesday for maintenance.

The pool located at the Isabel Miller Community Center is open Friday through Tuesday from 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. for children 15 and under; and from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. for ages 16 and over. It is closed on Wednesday and Thursday for maintenance.

Mayor Redd also would like to remind Camden residents that the City’s Community Centers and spray pools are available to residents as a stop-in site to provide relief from the heat.

The Community Centers are available Monday through Friday’s from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. The locations are as follows:
