MAYOR REDD AND THE CITY OF CAMDEN OFFER CONDOLENCES UPON THE PASSING OF NEW JERSEY SENATOR JIM WHELAN

CAMDEN, NJ – “On behalf of the City of Camden, we are saddened by the sudden loss of a true public servant and dedicated educator, New Jersey Senator Jim Whelan,” said Mayor Dana L. Redd. “Jim was a tremendous advocate for his constituents and all those living in Atlantic City and Atlantic County. Jim will be missed by so many of us across the State of New Jersey. I was proud to know Jim and considered him a friend. I pass along my deepest condolences to his family and friends.”
