

Biography of Councilman Brian K. Coleman

Born and raised in Camden, New Jersey, Brian K. Coleman is a passionate advocate for the City that he calls home. He was educated in the Camden City public school system. A graduate of Camden High School's Class of 1987, he went on to study at Lincoln Technical Institute before pursuing a career as a Juvenile Detention Officer. In the late 1990's, he served as a Corrections Officer at the Camden County Jail.

In the year 2000, Brian's career path headed in a new direction towards Computer Science. He studied technology and has been employed for more than a decade in the private sector as a computer technician.

Brian K. Coleman is a longtime active and committed resident of his Whitman park neighborhood in Camden City. Known for his community advocacy, he was first elected to serve on Camden

City Council in 2012 to represent the 2nd Ward, encompassing the Whitman Park, Centerville and Parkside neighborhoods. He was again re-elected to serve in 2016.

A proud sponsor of the Whitman Park Little League, Councilman Coleman supports numerous community organizations and participates in community organized activities regularly. He has served as a member of the Camden City Planning Board, and is a member of the Elks Organization Pride of Camden Lodge 83.