

IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DATE: November 16, 2018

CONTACT:
Vincent Basara,
City of Camden
856-757-7200

ADVISORY

Mayor Frank Moran And City Council Members

Spread Thanksgiving Cheer At The City's Community Centers

By Giving Away 700 Turkeys To Camden Residents and Disadvantaged Families

CAMDEN, NJ – Mayor Frank Moran will be joined by City Council Members, the City's Department of Human Services and City Staff, as they will help spread holiday cheer this Thanksgiving by providing more than 700 turkeys to Camden residents. The Turkeys will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis. The first 700 plus families to attend on Monday, November 19th at 3:00pm - 6:00pm, will receive a free frozen turkey. The Community Centers and locations are as follows:

Charles "Poppy" Sharp Community Center
713-715 Broadway (856) 757-7127

Malandra Hall Community Center
New Jersey & Merrimac Rds. (856) 757-7366

Cramer Hill Community Center
1035 Reeves Ave. (856) 757-7499

North Camden Community Center
6th & Erie Sts. (856) 757-7291

Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center
1151 Haddon Ave. (856) 757-7605

Isabel Miller Community Center
8th St. & Carl Miller Blvd. (856) 757-7504

In addition to the opportunity to receive a free Thanksgiving turkey, Camden Mayor Francisco "Frank" Moran and City Council Members will be on hand at Monday's event to wish residents a happy holiday.

"With the holidays approaching, it's so important that we take a step back and look out for one another," Mayor Frank Moran said. "Hunger affects so many families in our community. That's why we must serve not only at this time of year but all year. It is our hope that these 700 turkeys make the Thanksgiving holiday a little brighter for our residents."

WHO: Mayor Frank Moran, City Council Members, the City's Department of Human Services, City Staff, and residents

WHAT: Mayor Frank Moran and the City of Camden provide more than 700 turkeys to Camden residents for the upcoming holidays.

WHEN: Monday, November 19, 2018 at 3:00pm - 6:00pm

WHERE: Malandra Hall Community Center (New Jersey & Merrimac Rds.)
1200 S. Merrimac Rd. Camden, New Jersey 08103

###

