Mayor Frank Moran Announces Start Of The “Team Up! Clean Up!”
Camden Clean Campaign In The Rosedale/Dudley Neighborhoods

CAMDEN, NJ – Mayor Frank Moran, City Council members, the Department of Public Works, City staff and a host of volunteers will kick-off the second year of Mayor Moran’s “Team Up! Clean Up!” 2019 Camden Clean Campaign. Mayor Moran will host a press conference on Saturday, April 13th at 9:00 a.m. at Dudley Grange Park followed by a community clean-up throughout the Rosedale/Dudley neighborhoods of the City. The staging location for the clean-up will be in the park located at Federal Street & Dudley Street.

This clean up event will be the first of eleven scheduled events for this spring and summer of 2019. Residents will be able to obtain trash/recycling bins and information relating to recycling, e-waste, trash disposal and litter prevention in addition to other initiatives and City programs. To volunteer contact the City at (856) 757-7671 or email camdenclean@ci.camden.nj.us
